DDR Focus

Reintegration options are available and offered to all former AMF officers and soldiers who have disarmed and demobilised. Like anything, it is up to the individual to get the maximum out of the opportunity that will end in June 05. For example, Mid level commanders can receive assistance to retrain as teachers or construction Project Managers, or help to set up their own businesses. Alternatively, some may prefer to remain in the military and join the Afghan National Army. There are numerous choices to suit all requirements.

¹ As at 10 Jan, 132 of the 190 AMF units have now been officially decommissioned by the MoD.

Heavy Weapons

The current total for those heavy weapons classified as operational or repairable represents a large increase over the original figure originally indicated in the national survey. The survey suggested that there were some 4,300 HW’s but also included the caveat that more may be identified with time.

HW’s are stored in regional Cantonment sites in the following AMF / ANA Corps’ areas - 1 Corp – Jalalabad. 2 Corp – Kandahar. 3 Corp – Gardez. 4 Corp – Heart. 5 Corp – Parwan. 6 Corp – Konduz. 7 and 8 Corp – Mez. 9 Corp – Bamyan. Central Corp –Kabul.

² 247 illegal forces (IF) have been voluntarily DDR’d to date but only received food packages as ANBP is not mandated to include them within the DDR “R” programme. The remaining numbers of Illegal Forces are currently being quantified.

³ Both the AMF and ANA are recognised operational forces funded by the Islamic State of Afghanistan. The AMF is being DDR’d to break down the historic command and control structures and patriarchal allegiances that exist between the personnel and the factional leaders. In parallel, personnel are being recruited and professionally trained for the ANA to create a modern deployable and ethnically representative Army, that is commanded by the MoD and loyal to TISA. The ANA should reach 43,000 before Dec 05 and be at its full complement of 70,000 before Dec. 07.
