Comment

DDR is progressing well and disarmament and demobilisation are on course to be completed prior to the Parliamentary Elections. The responsibility for security is now firmly in the hands of the central government which is using its resources to extend its influence into the regions. The Afghan National Army and the Afghan National Police force are one of those resources that are growing in confidence by the day.

¹ As at 4 Jan, 127 of the 190 AMF units have now been officially decommissioned by the MoD.

Heavy Weapons

The current total for those heavy weapons classified as operational or repairable represents a large increase over the original figure originally indicated in the national survey. The survey suggested that there were some 4,300 HW’s but also included the caveat that more may be identified with time.

HW’s are stored in regional Cantonment sites in the following AMF / ANA Corps’ areas - 1 Corp – Jalalabad. 2 Corp – Kandahar. 3 Corp – Gardez. 4 Corp – Heart. 5 Corp – Parwan. 6 Corp – Konduz. 7 and 8 Corp – Mez. 9 Corp – Bamyan. Central Corp –Kabul.

² 247 irregular forces (IF) have been voluntarily DDR’d to date but only received food packages as ANBP is not mandated to include them within the “R” programme. The remaining numbers of Irregular Forces are being quantified.

³ Both the AMF and ANA are recognised operational forces funded by the Transitional Islamic State of Afghanistan. The AMF is being DDR’d to break down the historic command and control structures and patriarchal allegiances that exist between the personnel and the factional leaders. In parallel, personnel are being recruited and professionally trained for the ANA to create a modern deployable and ethnically representative Army, that is commanded by the MoD and loyal to TISA. The ANA should reach 43,000 before Dec 05 and be at its full complement of 70,000 before Dec. 07.
